Coal Miner, Living At Cokeburg, Slightly Wounds Wife—Believes Her Dead, Despondent, Fires Bullet Through Right Temple

HAD BEEN DRINKING, SAID

Had Not Been Getting Along With His Wife — Dead Man, Matt Persin, Leaves, Besides His Wife, Seven Children, Eldest Only 16 Years Old

Matt Persin, 34 years old, a miner of Cokeburg, believing that he had killed his wife in a drunken rage, lay down on the floor and shot himself through the right temple, killing himself instantly last night. The time of the fatality was 9 o'clock.

According to report Persin had been drinking heavily, and he and his wife had not been getting along well together. When he shot at Mrs. Persin through an open window, the bullet grazed her hip and she was so badly frightened that it is thought she fainted.

Persin took her into a room and spoke to her a number of times, but getting no answer, believed that she was dead. Despondent at his act he dropped to the floor and shot himself through the temple.

When the detectives arrived on the scene they opined it was a case of murder. Mrs. Persin had hidden the gun, and was at first reticent about the whole affair. Questioning the neighbors and returning to the house of the suicide, the officers arrived at the conclusion that there was no doubt but that Persin had killed himself.

A post mortem examination was made and the body removed to the McDonough mortuary in Beallsville. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon, with interment in the Scenery Hill cemetery.

There survive the suicide his wife, and seven children, the oldest of whom is only 16 years of age, and the youngest born a fortnight ago.

Three Men Are Caught In Stolen Automobile After Exciting Chase

Three men were arrested late Thursday night by Constable Bierer of North Belle Vernon, after they had made an unsuccessful attempt to force an entrance into the Vance Hardware store in State street. Lloyd Miller, a resident of Belle Vernon, while enroute to his home, saw the three men trying to enter the store. He hurried to the home of Constable Bierer, and together the two men returned to the scene of the proposed robbery.

Before they reached the store, however, the men, who had evidently placed a lookout, saw their approach and fled in a waiting automobile. The officer and Miller gave chase and after some time, overtook the men.

They were then taken to the station, where they were held. The three men are being held, pending investigation.

MYSTERY IN THE

DEATHS OF TWO

H. S. SENIORS

Marysville, Pa., May 17. — Two high school seniors were found dead in an automobile at Lamb's Cap, near here, early today.

Miss Leah Ellenberger, 19, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., and Harry Ganster, 20, president of the senior class of Marysville High school, are the victims.

Miss Ellenberger, here on a vacation, went out for flowers yesterday afternoon with young Ganster. Ganster's school term had ended yesterday in preparation for commencement exercises May 31.

When the pair failed to return last night, Joseph Ganster, the father, had a posse into the mountains. The father found the automobile mired along a mountain road shortly after daybreak.

Cumberland County authorities who are investigating, believe it to be a case of murder and suicide.

Miss Ellenberger was well known throughout this section for her unusual voice. On Thursday night she had taken the star role in an amateur production presented in the Marysville High school.

DONORA IS IN THE GRIP OF A SMALL POX SCARE TO-DAY

Five cases of smallpox were reported to the Health department of Donora yesterday and up till noon today two new cases had developed. The disease had broken out among the residents of Donora, particularly among those who just arrived there from the South.

A strict quarantine has been placed over them and an armed guard has been patrolling the district where the dread disease has appeared, since the discovery late yesterday afternoon.

For some time it has been a known fact that the residents of this section have been suffering from what was known as chicken pox. Becoming alarmed at the seriousness of the patients' illness, the health department sent the community nurse to inquire into the matter, who pronounced the malady as smallpox. Four cases have been reported in one house, Lee Taylor, on Main street, Belle Vernon. The wife and two brothers being the victims of the disease, while at the home of James Parish a boarder has been stricken. Two cases have been reported in the rear of the Lang Tailoring Shop on McKean avenue, Donora.

A number of men who have been working in Donora, and lodging in the Parish home, have left the locality and every effort is being made by the authorities between Brownsville and Duquesne to locate them. Every effort is being put forth to combat the spread of the disease.

Health Status Is Fine At North Charleroi For Organization

During the week State Health officials from Harrisburg have been making an official canvass and inspection of Washington county, which is said to stand high in typhoid fever statistics.

L. H. Sheffer, assistant state engineer, of Harrisburg, having in charge the Monongahela Valley district, paid North Charleroi a visit, and reported the health and sanitation of the borough as A. No. 1. The absence of typhoid fever in both Charleroi and North Charleroi, was a noticeable comment passed by the visiting officials.

The watchful care and observance of the health laws through the untiring efforts of both Charleroi and North Charleroi, has had much to do with the good health and sanitary conditions as they exist in both boroughs. "Clean-Up" week was a success and a big help to the health officers in their efforts.

Some few unconcerned persons, however, still persist in following along in the "old rut" of filth and uncleanly conditions, but it is hoped they may profit by the good example made by their neighbors.

It is proper, however, to add that the visiting state health officials were loud in their commendation of the excellent water supply of Charleroi and surrounding territory, as it is largely due to this fact the absence of typhoid fever.

WHAT MILK REALLY IS

In a previous issue the Mail chronicled the fact that a pasteurizing plant—Buffalo corporation—was considering locating here, having sent its representative to Charleroi for the purpose. At the present time the local milk is not pasteurized.

Milk is defined in the ordinance as meaning milk, cream, sour cream, sour milk, and all other fluid derivatives of milk, except condensed and evaporated milk. It provides for three grades: Certified milk, grade A raw milk, and pasteurized.

Certified milk is defined as the product of dairies operated in accordance with the "Methods and Distribution of Certified Milk" adopted by the American Association of Medical Milk Commission.

The general supply of milk is either "raw" or "pasteurized." Grade A raw milk is milk from a herd which has been subjected to tuberculosis tests conducted in accordance with the rules, regulations and practices of the Pennsylvania Bureau of Animal Husbandry.

"Pasteurized milk" is defined as milk drawn from healthy cows under sanitary conditions which has been subjected to a temperature of not less than 145 degrees Fahrenheit or more than 148 degrees Fahrenheit for a period of not less than 30 minutes.

The young lad was beloved by all who knew him. He attended the Warner school. BIG HOUSE FOR KATCHA-KOO

Katcha-Koo, the two-act musical comedy that has been making such a great hit with the public the past three nights, was presented for the last time last evening with the auditorium of the High school filled to capacity. The performance was starred with the same smoothness that marked the first two nights' performances and a well pleased audience left the auditorium at its conclusion with remarks of praise for the great production. The chief characters were at their best portraying their roles with a remarkable ease, and presented the plot of the story to the delight of all.

The chorus work under the direction of W. O. Williams of Monessen, comes in for its share of praise.

FIRE DESTROYS A RANKIN ROW

Pittsburgh, May 17.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed 8 houses comprising what is known as the "Green Row" in Rankin, forcing 62 negroes into the street, scantily clad. The loss is estimated at $12,000.

The fire was discovered by an occupant of one of the houses, who quickly aroused those of other buildings. Many of the residents saved many of their valuables by throwing them from the windows. All the people succeeded in reaching the street in safety.

Self Defense Claimed By The Defendants

Raphael Delrocco, his son Andy Delrocco, and Jake Gesmonti, who are in the county jail at Washington held in connection with the shooting of Joe Kuleri, at Sloan, late Wednesday evening, Kuleri now being in the West Penn hospital, Pittsburgh, with a serious wound in his body near the heart, are agreed in saying that Kuleri was the man who started trouble in Raphael Delrocco's home.

However, Raphael Delrocco, who is now in the county jail, says that prior to the shooting, as he was preparing to go to bed, his son, Andy, told him Joe Kuleri was outside and wanted to see him. He went outside and found Kuleri and another man, whose last name is not given, crouching down near a fence. Delrocco was awakened into the house and just after he got in Kuleri he says, "Come in, Andy, the son of Raphael, and the boarder, Gesmonti, were there. Kuleri walked up to Gesmonti and pulled a gun, slapped Gesmonti in the face with his hand.

It was then Raphael Delrocco says he snatched the gun away from Kuleri. Kuleri then pulled a knife and was about to start trouble. Mr. Delrocco admits he then pulled the gun that Kuleri had first had and shot Kuleri.

The father and son in jail and the boarder all told apparently straight-forward stories. They are well-spoken men and apparently, well-disposed. Gesmonti, the boarder, a young man, 33 years old, is a World War veteran, serving in the 57th infantry 7th division.

Kuleri's condition was reported fairly good yesterday, and it is stated that he was resting a little more comfortable than Thursday.

Kania was alone in the bank at the time. The branch is in the western part of downtown district.

Knight of Williamsport, which occurred in the Williamsport hospital this morning at 4:45 o'clock, where she had undergone an operation. The deceased has been ill for the past four weeks.

Shortly before noon yesterday, the body of an infant was found buried in a crude grave on the hillside, near Tenth street, Monessen, by school children returning home from school. The boys watched him refill the hole and hasten away. After the man had disappeared from sight the boys investigated. They opened the package, mistaking the infant for a dead Monessen pronounced the child had been dead for 24 hours.

Soon after the news was spread of the finding of the child, two boys of the Monessen told of their experience with the while on their way home Thursday night. They related that they noticed a man walking very hurriedly in front of them carrying a package and acting very suspiciously. The boys followed him and saw the man carry the package to the hillside, dig a hole and place the package into it. The boys watched him refill the hole and hasten away. After the man had disappeared from sight the boys investigated. They opened the package, mistaking the infant for a dead Monessen pronounced the child had been dead for 24 hours.

COOLIDGE HAS A COLD; MUST REMAIN IN ROOM

Washington, May 17. — President Coolidge today was ordered by General Sawyer, White House physician, to remain in his room until the cold he had cleared up.

Sawyer was very uncommunicative as to whether or not the President had any fever.

"All I can say is that the President is indisposed with a cold and it is deemed advisable that he remain in his room and keep quiet until he can return to his duties without liability."

Secretary Sleep, who visited the President, said that Mr. Coolidge had no fever, and his illness was nothing for the public to worry about. He explained that the President was troubled with a cold in the bronchial tubes.

UNCLE SAM AND JOHN BULL CAN CURE EUROPE'S ILLS

Philadelphia, May 17.—Great Britain and the United States can heal the ills of Europe by the use of commonsense, humor, and fair play. Sir Esme Howard, British ambassador to the United States, declared here last night before the English-Speaking union and the Transatlantic society of America.

The diplomat warned, however, against the acquisition of a feeling of superiority on the part of the English-speaking races.

BOYS ENJOY THE THEATERS

Yesterday afternoon, in conjunction with Boys' Week, the Young Americans certainly enjoyed the borough theatres, and filled every seat in them.

The boys were on hand early, and were lined up in front of the amusement houses. Probably 2,500 boys of Charleroi and vicinity witnessed the attractions, all having a free ticket. At the Majestic, Michael Rosenbloom had photographs taken of the audience, which were on the front of his theatre and in the street awaiting with eager anticipation a chance to enter.

The bills at all the theatres were exceptionally good.

MORE PATRIOTISM.
 Today sees the conclusion of Boys' Week in which people have evidenced their sympathy with the boy, assisted and encouraged him in patriotic impulse, but patriotism doesn't cease—it never ceases.
 Memorial day will soon be here, which calls for the best that is in us, patriotically speaking, and then there is a call for patriotism in another sense, that of the proposition of helping to aid the cause of financing a new hospital. These things ask for public and private, to the end that the institution needed becomes a reality.
 May every fibre of our being attune and acquiesce with patriotic impulse.

Ever since the so-called "salary grab" of the eighteen-seventies, when the "servants of the people" at Washington, Congressmen have fought shy of attaching their names to any more legislation of the same sort, but Representative Celler of New York has now ventured—or been induced by his associates to venture—to introduce a bill to increase the salary of Congressmen from $7,500 to $10,000 a year. Mr. Celler says he cannot live on his present pay "in a manner befitting the dignity of a Representative," and he is pretty certain to be told that the said "dignity" does not require the suits in a leading Washington hotel which he is now said to occupy.

According to Nichi-Nichi, one of the most bellicose of the Japanese newspapers, "if the United States has an oriental policy she will find it blocked through the opposition of colored Asiatics." The precise meaning is obscure but the spirit is plain enough. The latest "strained relation" with Japan makes many a sober-minded American wish once more in possession of a thousand islands in Japan's part of the world that would have to be defended at vast cost in an undesirable emergency.

Senator Heflin might be pertinently reminded that no American, while filing past a handshaking President, has ever had a chance to "say a word in behalf of clean government." Even if he had ventured to attempt it his eloquence would be promptly chilled by a request by the official managers of the function that he "step lively."

CAMPAIGN STUFF.

When a lady goes into politics she has to produce a photograph of herself surrounded by all her progeny, to show her fitness for the job she is seeking, while all a man has to do is to show a picture of himself looking intense and earnest, with heavy lines of determination etched about his mouth, and a strong chin, if any.

But why should a lawyer who could secure employment with an oil company at oil company rates, care to become president.

PHILLIES SHATTER TIE BY STAGING RALLY IN TENTH CHAPTER

Bill McKechnie yesterday named his new baby and then hustled from his home at Wilkesburg Junction to Forbes field, where he saw his Pirates drop a game of ball to the tail-end Phillies. The score was 4 to 3. The diamond contest was not decided until the tenth inning. The Buccaneers now nestle in sixth place.

The youngster was called James Archibald McKechnie, the middle name having been bestowed in honor of the little chap's granddaddy. The first link of the handle has no reference whatever to the late Jesse James, for Bill says he has no idea of educating his boy to be an umpire. He merely desired to name him after Brother Jim of Cincinnati.
 The Phils had their golden opportunity in the first inning when Ray Kremer was unable to prevent a cluster of damaging swats and the home fellows indulged in some tattered fielding. As a result, Art Fletcher's outfit took instant advantage of the situation and slipped three points across the rubber. The Buccaneers encountered an obstacle in the person of their former teammate, Harold Carlson, who puzzled them with his curves for five frames, but was assaulted in the sixth and driven to cover. McKechnie's men smashed their way to a standstill in this round. Walter Betts pitched the remainder of the afternoon and was credited with the victory.

EJECTED FROM FORBES FIELD BOXER SUES FOR SUM OF $25,000

Suit for $25,000 damages was filed late yesterday in Common Pleas Court of Allegheny county, against the Pittsburgh Athletic Company, owner of the Pirates, by Johnny Ray, former lightweight boxer, who alleges that he was "forcefully, wantonly and illegally" ejected from Forbes Field on May 2, by an employee of the company.

According to the bill of complaint, which was filed by Attorney Samuel Silverman, counsel for Ray, the plaintiff purchased a general admission ticket for May 2 and was ousted from the park shortly before the start of the game.

The bill avers that Samuel Walters, secretary of the Pittsburgh Athletic company, instructed a city policeman, employed by the company, to eject Ray. After Ray was ejected from the field, the bill states, he was permitted to buy another general admission ticket for $1 and pass through the turnstile.

The bill continues that the ejection of Ray, who in private life is Harry Pitter of 604 South Dallas avenue, was "willful, deliberate and unwarranted," and has caused him "great humiliation and inconvenience."

Mr. Silverman declared he received a letter dated May 6 from Mr. Walters whom he quoted as saying:

"A city patrolman brought a party, presumably, Ray, to our office on May 2 and ordered us to refund his admission fee of $1, claiming he had violated a city ordinance by insisting upon loitering in the runway in the rear of our seats, thus blocking the public passageway."

Mr. Silverman said that Mr. Walters declared in his letter that "he thought nothing more of it."

Johnny Ray is well known to the Charleroi fans, having boxed here on several occasions.

ABOUT eight years ago The Original Special Motor Fuel, AMOCO-GAS, was placed upon the market. From the start engineers and motor car experts recognized that AMOCO-GAS was destined to revolutionize the gasoline industry—that the basic idea of AMOCO-GAS was a necessary step if automobiles were to render their greatest, longest and most trouble-free service. The remarkable acceptance of AMOCO-GAS has proven this.

The list of would-be imitators of AMOCO-GAS grows daily. But there is no true substitute for the original. A substitute would have to meet not only one or two of the purposes of AMOCO-GAS, but ALL of them. And—

The "Six Purpose" Motor Fuel

- 1st. Amoco-Gas Gives More Miles Per Gallon
 Extra mileage! Miles you cannot begin to get from regular gasolines and other fuels. It takes figures off the fuel bill and puts them on the speedometer, where they belong.
- 2nd. Amoco-Gas Does Away With Motor Knocking
 Knocking is harmful to the motor, disagreeable to hear, shortens the life of your car, and adds to your repair bills. AMOCO-GAS—clean, pure and powerful—eliminates knocking.
- 3rd. Amoco-Gas Gives Tremendous and Uniform Power
 Instant power! Steady power! Dependable power! Two-fisted power, with a remarkable reserve of energy which enables it to deliver the goods in tight places.
- 4th. Amoco-Gas Starts Easily and Instantly
 Starts as quickly in winter as it does in summer. No delays. No stalling in traffic. Quick pick-up. Snappy get-away. Always sure.
- 5th. Amoco-Gas Gives Greater Driving Flexibility
 Steady, even and unhampered power gives full play to a clean, smooth-running motor. A motor that responds instantly to every demand made upon it.
- 6th. Amoco-Gas Eliminates Carbon and Saves Motor
 There is no carbon to cause knocking. No lost time and bills for repairs or carbon removal. No sooty, dirty, gritty deposits that cause corrosion, that reduce motor efficiency and shorten the life of the vital organs of your car.

AMOCO-GAS has still other advantages noticeable when driving—exclusive advantages that really make it a motor fuel of many times "6 Purposes."

Do not experiment, gamble, or take chances with substitutes. No imitation does, or can meet ALL of the purposes of AMOCO-GAS or equal its supreme quality.

Good Stationery
and Lots of It

If the nation's supply of good stationery were limited and obtainable only by the few, there would be some excuse for the kinds of note-paper on which some of us write to some of us. But this isn't the case. In the big assortment always on hand at this address there's good stationery enough for all of us.

Fountain pens, too. All leading makes. Especially Parker Pens—the famous Duofold, Over-size, Duofold Jr. and Lady Duofold; all styles, all points, all sizes. Step in and look them over.

Free-Inspection Service: If the pen you've been carrying is out of commission, bring it in. We'll examine it without charge. If it is fixable, we know how to fix it. Charges moderate.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Zelle of Atlantic City, while enroute to visit the latter's mother, Mrs. Walter McKinley of Urbana, Ohio, stopped in Charleroi yesterday afternoon and spent a short time with Mrs. Zelle's sister-in-law, Mrs. Ethel Emrick of McKean avenue.

THE ETERNAL CITY

GLORIOUS DRAMA

On view next week, Monday, Tuesday, at the Majestic theatre is a photo play which comes nearer to perfection in entertainment than any of the many pictures we have ever seen. In fact, its appeal is so great that we find it difficult to restrain our enthusiasm in writing this review.

The picture is "The Eternal City," and its points of excellence are so numerous that it would take triple the space at our disposal to mention them. Story, cast, direction, settings and acting—all are practically flawless. This First National picture, which was produced by George Fitzmaurice in Rome, is based on Hall Caine's famous story, and it is enacted by a cast which boasts of such well-known names as Barbara La Marr, Bert Lytell, Lionel Barrymore, Montagu Love and Richard Bennett.

PAT HARRISON

FOR CHAIRMAN

New York, May 17.—Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, spokesman plenipotentiary, an orator extraordinary of the Democratic party is the upper branch of Congress, was a heavy favorite for temporary chairman and "keynoter" of the Democratic national convention.

The convention arrangements committee met at the Democratic club with the intention of selecting Harrison for the job thereby taking the first step in final preparations for the battle of delegates scheduled to begin June 24.

FITH REEL

A friend who had been reading about a well-known director's divorce case, thinking to set himself in strong with the director, ventured to say some uncomplimentary things about the wife, whereon, to his surprise, the director replied: "Man, she's an angel!"

"But," stammered the friend, "I thought—"

"She's an angel," continued the director, "because she was always up in the air, she was always harping and she never had anything to wear."

Matter of Judgment

Success is gauged by a person's judgment percentage. If your judgment is 90 per cent good, it won't be long before you'll get ahead; if your judgment is 90 per cent bad, you'll continue to be in debt and work for the other fellow. Ever think of it that way?—Enterprise Ledger.

In Society's Realm

A special meeting of the Charleroi Monessen hospital auxiliary has been called for Monday evening, May 19, to be held in the Borough building. At this time all business in connection with the recent tag day will be completed and a report made public. All members are especially urged to attend.

The Junior Prom of the Charleroi High School held in the Elks Ballroom last evening was well patronized by approximately 150 couples. With Massie's Blue and White orchestra of Scottsdale officiating, the dancing was much enjoyed. The ballroom was prettily decorated with the class colors.

The picnic held by members and friends of Charleroi Circle 303 P. H. C. last evening was a decided success, both financially and socially. Pies were sold at a good price after much spirited bidding by the men and women present. Dancing and a social session concluded a very pleasant evening. Out-of-town visitors were present from Belle Vernon, Uniontown, Stockdale and Monessen. During the business session local Deputy William Hobaugh of Uniontown was present and in behalf of Mrs. Maud Crookard Hobaugh, State Deputy, offered some very flattering inducements to those wishing to enter the sixty day campaign for new members, which embraces a free trip to Niagara Falls and other points of interest.

Here are the Reasons for the Power, Smoothness and Endurance of Oakland's Six-Cylinder Engine

1. Oakland's new six-cylinder I-head engine is of the most advanced design. Its remarkable performance is the logical result of competent engineering and high grade construction throughout.
2. The large, perfectly-balanced crankshaft runs in big, special, bronze-backed bearings. These patented bearings are positively the best there are.
3. Lubrication is force fed by means of a reliable gear-type oil pump. Main, camshaft, and connecting-rod bearings and timing chain are continually bathed in oil. This positive lubrication adds greatly to quiet operation and long life.
4. Oakland cylinders are honed smooth as glass on special machines. Pistons and rings of the latest design are individually fitted into each cylinder with extreme care and precision. Vibration and wear are practically eliminated by this process.
5. The connecting rods are light and strong. The babbit-lined bearings are permanently bonded to each rod with pure tin—the most approved process and also the most expensive.
6. The camshaft is driven by a silent chain running in a bath of oil. This is conceded the best type of drive and the most accurate. There is a convenient external adjustment.
7. Oakland valves are of special heat-resisting alloy steel. So efficient are they, that valve grinding is necessary only at very rare intervals.
8. The intake manifold is scientifically designed to insure perfect fuel distribution to all cylinders, and therefore smooth, economical operation. There is a handy temperature adjustment for summer and winter.
9. The electrical system maintains Remy standards of excellence. The spark controls entirely automatic, which means that the engine will deliver the maximum of power under all conditions.
10. The single-plate disc clutch is simple and durable. It is self-adjusting for wear. Its smooth operation makes possible the remarkably easy gear shifting of the True Blue Oakland.
